Event Summary

About The Total Rewards Conference

WorldatWork's Total Rewards Conference is THE premier learning experience for ambitious and curious Total Rewards professionals. We have the speakers and programs that will deliver actionable, measurable solutions in a fun and dynamic setting. We provide plenty of opportunities to connect with your peers and be part of a larger movement to transform how talent is rewarded in our organizations.

Our focus is solidly business-centered, delivering tangible and actionable ideas you can take away and implement immediately. We also aim to give you long-lasting wisdom and tools to solve the problems you have—and the ones you don't know about yet.

“

This is one of my favorite conferences.

“

I had an amazing time and learned so much from my peers and experts in this sector. I would absolutely attend again.

“

I would recommend this conference to those in the field and also to those HR generalists who want to specialize a little bit more in compensation and benefits. I think that there is something here for everyone.

“

I have not missed a year. The vibe is amazing. You have a huge range of not only professions but a huge range of levels as well.

“

Really well-organized and run event. The app is fantastic! This was my first WorldatWork conference and I'm really glad I attended!
